"New Voter Registration Special Camp" – Report

"New Voter Registration Special Camp" Camp organized by National Service Scheme unit of Dr.D.Y.Patil Pratishthan's D.Y. Patil College of Engineering, Akurdi, Pune (A106). (14 September 2023), the Activity began at 09:00 PM at in "C" wing Of Our College.

Under the Guidance of Honorable Principal Dr.P.Malathi ,Vice-Principal Dr.S.S.Sarnobat , NSS Mentor Dr.Pramod Chougule, NSS CO-COORDINATOR Mr.Mahesh Tatikonda , NSS Co-ordinator Mr. Sagar Wangdare & Ms.Utkrasha Kharade Other Respected Faculty Members, the "New Voter Registration Special Camp" Activity was done successfully.

The "New Voter Registration Special Camp" was a remarkable event organized at D.Y Patil College of Engineering, Akurdi, Pune. This event aimed to facilitate the voter ID card registration process for students above 18 years of age. The event was conducted in collaboration with the NSS A-106 unit and the ELC Club, creating a sense of civic responsibility and engagement among the college community.

The event commenced at the C Wing porch of our college, where enthusiastic students gathered to participate. To register for the event, students were required to sign up on the www.nysp.in website, ensuring a smooth and efficient registration process.

Inside the college premises, the NSS room served as the central hub for event coordination. The college administration generously provided three tables and ten chairs to facilitate the registration process. This support was instrumental in ensuring the event's success.

The NSS unit played a pivotal role in this initiative, with ten dedicated volunteers guiding participants through the registration process and offering valuable information about voter ID card requirements and procedures. The event was not restricted to specific branches; it was open to all students from different disciplines within our college.

A special voter registration camp will be held on Thursday, September 14th from 10am to 5pm near C wing.

All students and Staff are encouraged to attend and bring the following documents:

- 1)A copy of your Aadhaar card or any other government-issued ID
- 2)Photo requirement: (4.5 cm X 3.5 cm), SIZE MAX 2 MB
- 3)Birth proofs: (any from following)
- 4)Birth certificate
- 5)Pan card
- 6)driving licence
- 6)10th certificate
- 7)passport

The camp is being organized by NSS & ELC club of DYPCOE in association with Election Commission of India. It is a great opportunity to register to vote and make your voice heard in the upcoming elections.

Throughout the day, the team successfully registered approximately 65 students for their voter ID cards. This impressive turnout underscored the importance of active citizenship and voting in our democracy. Moreover, the event helped generate awareness about the significance of participating in the electoral process among young adults.

The "New Voter Registration Special Camp" concluded at 5 PM, marking the successful completion of the event. It not only simplified the voter ID card registration process but also encouraged students to exercise their voting rights responsibly.

In conclusion, the event at D.Y Patil College of Engineering was a commendable effort to promote civic engagement and voter awareness among the student community. With the collaborative efforts of the NSS A-106 unit, ELC Club, and college administration, it provided a valuable opportunity for students to register for their voter ID cards conveniently. The event's impact extended beyond the numbers, as it instilled a sense of civic duty among the participants, empowering them to actively participate in the democratic process.

Meri mati Mera desh – Report

“Meri mati Mera desh” was organized by NSS Unit at D.Y. Patil College Of Engineering Akurdi Pune, “Meri mati Mera desh” on a occasion of (09 August 2023). The Drive began at 9:45 A.M Principal Dr. Mrs.P.Malathi Mam ,Vice-Principal Dr.S.S.Sarnobat sir, NSS Co-ordinator Mr.M.V.Tatikonda Sir,& Other Respected Faculty Members

All NSS volunteers assembled at the NSS room first. We collected NSS posters to display our unity and purpose. The next destination was the C building, where we convened at 10 am sharp. Standing together, we recited the pledge that signified our commitment. As the clock struck ten, we were ready and enthusiastic to uphold our pledge.

The atmosphere is charged with patriotism as “ Meri maati Mera desh ” resonates through the air, and every student, including NSS volunteers, commits to the pledge at the designated time of 10 am.

Meanwhile, across the college, fellow students occupied their respective classrooms, eager to participate. At the precise hour, everyone, with a sense of patriotism and dedication, joined in reciting the pledge, reaffirming their allegiance to the nation's soil.

Capturing the momentous occasion, photos were taken and shared on the government platform, a necessary step to secure certificates for our participation. This documented our collective pledge, ensuring recognition for each student's contribution. The certificates would serve as a testament to our involvement in this noble endeavor.

In this simple yet impactful manner, every NSS volunteer and student of our college actively engaged in the pledge, fostering a stronger sense of unity and national pride.

“Session on Art of Mind Management” – REPORT

A National Service Scheme (NSS) of D.Y. Patil College of Engineering Akurdi Pune (A-106) organized a thought-provoking and insightful session on Mind Management for NSS Volunteers, Faculty & other members. The event aimed to provide participants with practical tools and strategies to better manage their mental well-being and enhance their personal and professional lives.

Session Highlights:

Expert Speaker: The session featured a renowned Shriman Anant Vaknalli, widely known as Anantshesh Prabhu:

- A seasoned Senior General Manager at Cummins India Limited, with 27 years of experience in Mechanical and Industrial Engineering, Six Sigma, and ISO/IATF auditing.
- An ardent follower of the divine message of Bhagavad Gita since his engineering days, dedicating his free time to teaching and applying its teachings, engaging in community services and educational initiatives. Their expertise and experience added credibility and depth to the content.

Understanding Mental Health: The session began with an introduction to the concept of mental health, emphasizing its importance in overall well-being. The participants were encouraged to break the stigma surrounding mental health issues and seek help when needed.

Stress Management: The speaker delved into the various aspects of stress and its impact on mental health. Practical tips and techniques for managing stress were shared, including deep breathing exercises, mindfulness, and time management strategies.

Goal Setting and Mindfulness: The session also included a segment on goal setting and mindfulness. Volunteers were guided on setting SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, and Time-bound) goals and incorporating mindfulness practices into their daily routines.

Q&A Session: The event concluded with a lively question-and-answer session, allowing participants to seek clarification and share their thoughts and concerns with the speaker.

Impact:

The Mind Management session organized by NSS had a positive impact on the volunteers. Participants left the session with improved awareness of their mental health, practical tools to manage stress, and a deeper understanding of emotional intelligence. Many expressed their commitment to implementing the strategies learned in their daily lives.

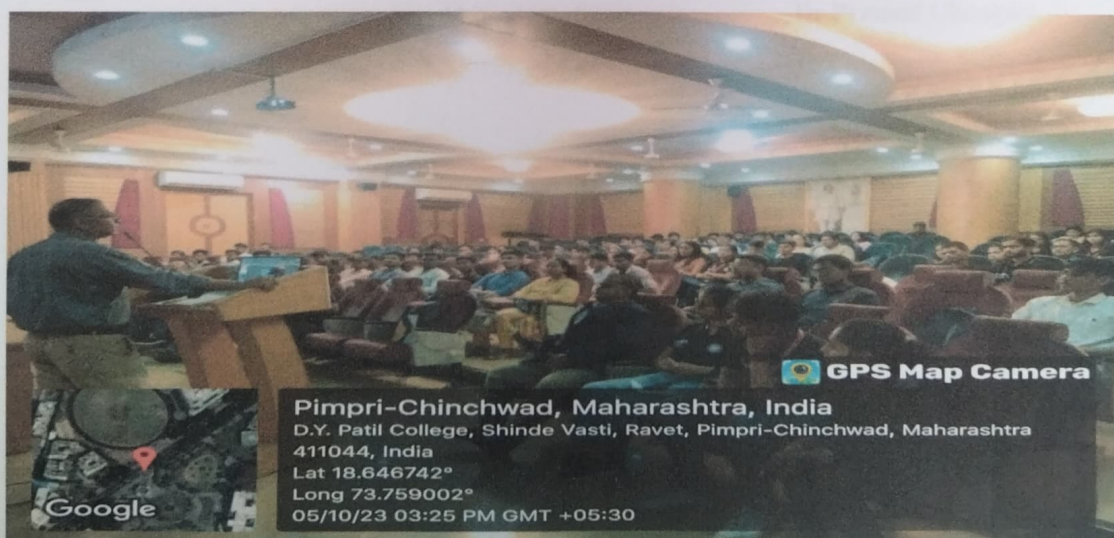

Conclusion:

The Mind Management session organized by NSS successfully addressed the important topic of mental health and equipped volunteers with valuable tools to enhance their well-being. It demonstrated the NSS's dedication to not only community service but also the overall development of its members. Such initiatives contribute to building a healthier and more resilient society, one volunteer at a time.

27th NATIONAL YOUTH FESTIVAL- REPORT

A group of 30 members of the NSS DYPCOE team (A-106) had the privilege of attending the grand inauguration of the 27th National Youth Festival by Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi in Nashik, Maharashtra, on 12th January. The event unfolded with an aura of patriotism and cultural richness, celebrating the strength and potential of India's youth.

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi inaugurated the 27th National Youth Festival in Nashik, Maharashtra today. Shri Modi paid floral tributes to the portrait of Swami Vivekananda and Rajmata Jijau. He also witnessed a march past by the state's team and a cultural program on the theme of 'Viksit Bharat @ 2047 - Yuva ke liye, Yuva ke dwara' which included Rhythmic gymnastics, Mallakhamb, Yogasana and National Youth Festival song.

Addressing the gathering, the Prime Minister said that today marks the occasion of India's youth power and is dedicated to the great personality of Swami Vivekananda who inspired the country with new energy and enthusiasm during the period of slavery. Shri Modi conveyed his best wishes to all youth on the occasion of National Youth Day which is celebrated on the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. He also noted the birth anniversary of Rajmata Jijabai, the symbol of India's women power and expressed gratitude for being present in Maharashtra on this occasion.

PM Modi emphasized that the current moment of 'Amrit Kaal' is a unique moment for the youth of India. Recalling the epoch-defining contributions of personalities like M Visvesvaraya, Major Dhyan Chand, Bhagat Singh, Chandrashekhar Azad, Batukeshwar Dutt, Mahatma Phule, Savitri Bai Phule, the Prime Minister reminded the youth of their similar responsibilities during the 'Amrit Kaal'

Objective :

1. Empowerment: Provide platforms for young people to express opinions and showcase talents.
2. Awareness: Raise awareness about youth-related issues like education, employment, and mental health.
3. Advocacy: Advocate for policies addressing the concerns and needs of the youth.
4. Community Engagement: Encourage youth involvement in volunteerism and civic activities.
5. Diversity Celebration: Highlight and celebrate the diversity within the youth population.
6. Education and Skills: Focus on educational and skill development opportunities for young people.
