POLICY AGAINST SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF WOMEN AT THE WORKPLACE

I. Preamble

The Parliament of India passed the "Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act," in the year 2013. The ACT provides protection against sexual harassment of women at workplace and for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment and for the matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

The guidelines explicitly state the following:

"It shall be the duty of the employer or other responsible persons in workplaces or other institutions to prevent or deter the commission of acts of sexual harassment and to provide the procedures for the resolutions, settlement, or prosecution of acts, of sexual harassment by taking all steps required."

We at D Y Patil College of Engineering, Akurdi, Pune, are committed to creating and maintaining an environment which is free of all forms of gender violence, sexual harassment, and discrimination on the basis of sex/gender. Following this, the institute is committed to uphold the Constitutional mandate ensuring the above mentioned human rights of all those who fall within its jurisdiction. As directed by the act DYPCOE has constituted "Internal Complaint Committee" to take care of these issues. The committee will be working in the strict framework as published in Gazette of India part III, section 4, 1938, published by Ministry of Human Resource Development and University Grant Commission in 2016.

II. Objectives

The objectives of the Internal Complaint Committee are as follows:

1. To create and maintain safe, healthy and supportive environment for women and girl students in the campus.
2. To address issues faced by women at work place.
3. To organize awareness programmes related to these issues.
4. To take preventive steps towards protection of women staff / students from sexual harassment in the college.

III. The Definition of Sexual Harassment

According to THE SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF WOMEN AT THE WORKPLACE (PREVENTION, PROHIBITION AND REDRESSAL) ACT 2013, sexual harassment includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behavior (whether directly or by implication) namely:

1. Physical contact and advances; or
2. A demand or request for sexual favors; or
3. Making sexually colored remarks; or
4. Showing pornography; or
5. Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature.

Any act falling under the purview of following cases will be considered as an incident of sexual harassment (Clarification of Unwelcome acts or behavior):

- a) When submission to unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature are, implicitly or explicitly, made a term or condition of teaching/guidance, employment, participation, or evaluation of a person's engagement in any activity.
- b) When unwelcome sexual advances, and verbal, non-verbal and/or physical conduct such as loaded comments, remarks or jokes, letters, phone calls or e-mails, gestures, exhibition of pornography, lurid stares, physical contact, stalking, sounds or display of a derogatory nature.
- c) Interfering with her work or creating an intimidating, offensive, or hostile environment for her.
- d) When a person uses the body or any part of it or any object as an extension of the body with a sexual purpose in relation to another person without the latter's consent or against that person's will, such conduct will amount to sexual assault.
- e) When deprecatory comments, conduct or any such behaviour is based on the gender identity/sexual orientation of the person and/or when the premises or any public forum of the institute is used to denigrate/discriminate against person(s), or create a hostile environment on the basis of a person's gender identity/sexual orientation.

2. Any COMPLAINANT may file a complaint within a period of 3 months from the date of incident. In case of a series of incidents, COMPLAINANT should file a case within a period of 3 months from the date of last incident.
3. Where the aggrieved woman is unable to file a complaint on account of her physical or mental incapacity or death or otherwise, her legal heir or such other person as may be prescribed may make a complaint under this section.
4. All complaints will only be accepted in writing. The Committee is allowed to take action even in the absence of a written complaint. Though a written complaint is must (as per the Vishakha Guidelines), however if the woman does not want to do the same, anybody can write on her behalf.
5. Any complaint in writing has to be signed by the COMPLAINANT and will be read out to the complainant and will not be acted upon till the same is signed by the complainant.
6. The complainant shall be afforded full secrecy at each stage.
7. The name, address, identity or any other particulars calculated to lead to identification of the COMPLAINANT shall be kept confidential and will not be disclosed even to the Committee, till the meeting in this regard is convened.
8. Within a period of 5 working days from the date of such communication, the Chairperson shall convene a meeting to deal with the complaint and make preliminary enquiry/fact finding enquiry to verify the facts of the complaint. An Enquiry Committee will be constituted if the complaint is found genuine.
9. In case, the Enquiry Committee decides to proceed with the complaint, they may have the option to settle the matter between COMPLAINANT & COMPLAINEE through conciliation. For this the wishes of the complainant shall be ascertained and if the complainant wishes that a warning would suffice then the alleged offender shall be called to the meeting of the Committee, heard and if so satisfied that a warning is just and proper, he may be warned about his behaviour. The matter shall then be treated as concluded and disposed of with a note to that effect made in the Complaint Register.

XIII. The Inquiry Process

In case the COMPLAINANT requests that the complaint should be processed with beyond a mere warning, the same may be processed and has to be solved within a stipulated time of 90 working days.

1. Within five days of the start of the enquiry process, the Inquiry Committee shall furnish a copy of the complaint to the accused and complainant along with a written notice requiring both parties to furnish a written submission. In case the complainant does not have any additions to make to the complaint filed earlier, she can just submit a statement to that effect.
2. Within a week, both parties shall submit to Inquiry Committee their replies to the documents that have been served on them. The replies may also include a list of questions that the party wishes the Enquiry Committee to ask the other party or its witnesses.
3. Within one week of the receipt of the replies and list of question in (2) above, The Enquiry Committee shall start the process of an oral hearing.
4. In the course of the oral hearing, the complainant, the accused, and their witnesses will separately be given a chance to give an account of the instances alluded to in the complaint.
5. All parties can also submit any documentary evidence at the time of the oral hearing.
6. The Enquiry Committee shall have the power to ask questions that it deems fit to all parties during the oral hearing.
7. The Enquiry Committee would also ask questions which have been submitted by the complainant and defendant for the other parties. However, The Enquiry Committee has the right to disallow any questions that it has reason to believe to be irrelevant, mischievous, or gender-insensitive.
8. The Enquiry Committee may also call upon additional witnesses and ask them any questions that it may deem fit.
9. The Enquiry Committee shall have the power to ask the relevant authorities for any official papers or documents pertaining to the complainant as well as the accused.
10. The Enquiry Committee shall conduct the proceedings in a fair manner and shall provide reasonable opportunity to the complainant and accused for presenting and defending his/her case.

11. At no time during the inquiry proceedings shall the accused and the complainant be placed face to face, or put in a situation where they may be face to face.

12. The Enquiry Committee may consider as relevant any earlier complaints against the accused. However, at no time in the enquiry process shall the past sexual history of the complainant be probed into, as such information shall be deemed irrelevant to a complaint of sexual harassment.

13. If the accused fails, without valid ground, to present him for three hearing convened by the chairperson of the Enquiry Committee shall have right to take a decision on the complaint based upon available evidence.

14. Lawyers are not allowed during the enquiry but both sides can avail help from them.

Note:

Most cases of sexual harassment occur in private, so there may not be any eye-witness. The Enquiry Committee will have to come to a conclusion about the complaint without proof or evidence of this kind. It will rely on circumstantial evidence and the written submissions and oral testimonies of the complainant, the accused, and witnesses if any as well as any documentary evidence. This enquiry is not a criminal investigation or a proceeding in a court of law – a strong probability, rather than 'proof beyond reasonable doubt', is enough to take a decision on the complaint.

XIV. Complaint Withdrawal

1. The COMPLAINANT may withdraw her complaint in writing at any time during the inquiry procedure. However, the Committee must ascertain the reasons for withdrawal of the complaint and record the same in writing and get it counter-signed by the complainant.

2. The complaints enquiry procedure shall, on such withdrawal, be terminated, save in instances in which the Enquiry Committee is informed, knows, or has reason to believe, that the reasons for such withdrawal are the consequences or effect of coercion and intimidation exerted by the Accused(s), or any person on her/his behalf on the complainant. In such an instance, the complaints enquiry proceedings shall continue in accordance with the procedure outlined in the policy.

XV. Disciplinary Actions

Enhancement of disciplinary action, by the Committee, could depend on factors such as the nature and extent of injury caused to the complainant, the impact of the violation on the institutions as a whole, the position of the harasser in the power hierarchy, repetition of offence etc.

A. Where the Committee finds an employee (faculty, staff (section IV 2 a, b) or research staff) of the Institute involved in sexual harassment of the complainant, it can recommend disciplinary action in the form of:

1. Warning
2. Written apology
3. Bond of good behaviour
4. Adverse remarks in the performance assessment
5. Debarring from teaching duties or duties as a guide or examiner or as a resource person
6. Denial of membership of statutory bodies
7. Denial of re-employment or renewal of contract
8. Stopping of increments/promotion
9. Reverting, demotion
10. Suspension
11. Dismissal
12. Any other relevant mechanism

B. Where the Committee finds a research scholar/student (Section IV 2 c, d) of the institute is involved in sexual harassment of the complainant, it can recommend disciplinary action in the form of:

1. Warning
2. Written apology
3. Bond of good behavior
4. Debarring entry into the hostel/mess/guest house/campus
5. Suspension for a specific period of time
6. Withholding results
7. Debarring from exams
8. Stopping of fellowship and contingency
9. Expulsion

10. Denial of admission
11. Declaring the harasser as "persona non grata" for a stipulated period of time
12. Community service
13. Any other relevant mechanism

C. In such cases where the Committee finds a third party/outsider to be guilty of sexual harassment, the institute's authorities shall initiate action by making a complaint with the appropriate authority and at the Institute level it can recommend disciplinary action in the form of:

1. Warning
2. Written apology
3. Debarring entry into the campus

[NOTE: The reasons for the action have to be provided in writing. Action will be taken against person(s) who try to pressurize the complainant in any way and any pressure/threat to the Committee.]

In the above-mentioned reports, confidentiality of the complainants will be maintained.

XVI. Redressal

1. The Committee will submit a report along with recommended disciplinary actions to the PRINCIPAL.
2. The Principal of DYPCOE upon receipt of the enquiry report shall implement the disciplinary action on the basis of the recommendations of the Committee under relevant service rules within two months.
3. The disciplinary action will be commensurate with the nature of the violation.
4. In case the complaint is not proved, the Committee shall recommend that no action is required to be taken in the matter. Mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof need not attract action against the complainant.
5. In such cases that are likely to be rare, where the Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation by the complainant is malicious or false with the full knowledge of the complainant or where the complainant has produced any forged or misleading document, the Committee may recommend punitive action against such COMPLAINANT.

6. If the Committee arrives at a conclusion that during the inquiry any witness has given false evidence or produced any forged or misleading document, it may recommend punitive action against the said witness.
7. Non-adversarial modes of redressal and resolution could also be considered in appropriate cases. Examples of this may be verbal warning, verbal apology, promise of good behavior etc.
8. The victim of sexual harassment/COMPLAINANT will have the option to seek adjustments such as change of the room/location of the office room, change of the quarter, etc.
9. The Committee, in exceptional cases, can ask the institute to allow the complainant to proceed on leave for a period of up to three month (the leave will not be deducted from her leave account).
10. Grant such other relief to the complainant as may be prescribed.

XVII. Obligations of DYPCOE Authorities

1. Provide a safe working environment at the workplace which shall include safety from persons coming into contact at the workplace.
2. Display at any conspicuous place at the workplace, the penal consequences of sexual harassment, and the order constituting the DYPCOE.
3. Assist the Committee to organize two or more workshops annually to sensitize the employees and students with the provisions of the Act and orientation programmes for members of the Committee
4. Institute should organize gender orientation session/ human processing lab at the beginning of each academic session.
5. There is a need to have a counseling centre at DYPCOE. At least once a week counseling services should be made available to the students on the issues of adjustment, harassment, any other issue related to education at DYPCOE, Pune.
6. The Institute through its authorities would ensure necessary facilities to the Committee and the process of an inquiry. It would assist in securing the attendance of the accused and witnesses before the Committee or its sub-committee, as the case may be. It would also make available such information to the Committee as it may require having regard to the complaint.
7. Provide assistance to the individual to file a complaint under the IPC

8. Treat sexual harassment as misconduct under the service rule and initiate action against misconduct.
9. RTIs are not applicable for sexual harassment complaints.

XVIII. Amendments in the Policy

1. The policy will be suitably amended as per modifications in the prevailing laws.
2. In case of need, committee may amend the policy time to time.
